The dial

footprints through time...

Framingham
State College
-est. 1839-

Dear Class of 2002,

A note about the delay in publication of this book ... lack of student yearbook staff, graduating student staff, changing Student Involvment staff, upgraded software programs, crashing computers, missing files ... yet, the academic year moved forward. Our sincere apologies for a later delivery than anticipated, but rather than compromising the quality of the book (or not having one!), our staff moved forward with the resources we had available.

Well, here is it, the 2002 Framingham State College Dial Yearbook. Many of you have been eagerly awaiting its arrival, while others are pleasantly surprised by its delivery - but through many challenges we are happy to present your first gift from the College. Inside you will find a collection of images, and a reflection of the 2001-2002 year. Student Involvement and Leadership Development hopes that this book provides you with an outline to remembering the people and places that made Framingham State College special to you.

Much gratitude to the people on campus who supplied us with images and information. Most importantly, thank you to the Student Involvement staff and Josten's support team for making this yearbook a reality.

Best of luck to the Class of 2002 in your future endeavors!

Sincerely,

Student Involvement and Campus Events

Our Community ... Our World
Life Changing Events

The world is constantly moving forward, bringing us happiness and tragedy - sometimes quicker than a blink of an eye. At Framingham State College, change is no different. In the small world of FSC, the Athletic and Recreation Center finally arrived. Complete with facilities for working out, athletic events, and aerobic classes, the wait was finally over! No sooner were people enjoying the new facility, that many beloved faculty, staff, and administrators said goodbye during the state's early retirement incentive. And finally, who can forget how September 11, 2001, changed our lives and the world forever. Yet, life kept moving forward for everyone and everyplace - including Framingham State College.

Framingham Continues to Grow

President Heineman addresses the crowd at the official opening of the Athetic and Recreation Center

Athletic and Recreation Center

After years of construction deadlines and anticipation, the new athletic and recreation facility opened on campus in November. Beginning in the early 1990's, the planning for an athletic facility began, as varsity sports were condemned to the gymnasium below Dwight Hall. Though construction delays, budgeting concerns, and administration changes, both students and community members were ready to use the new fortress on campus. While many community members began working out, athletes enjoyed crowds at both varsity and intramural games. The wait was well worth the new equipment, aerobics/dance space, and a brand new gymnasium. The first men's basketball game was held against Worcester Poytechnical Institute (WPI) on Nobember 16 and the women played on November 20.

Assistant Director of Athletics, Carey Williams (left,) and Director of Athletics (right), Tom Kelly, open the front doors of the new building.

Joan Kelly, of Alumni and Development Relations, cycles away the winter blues on the top floor of the new building.

The eager crowd floods into the new building.

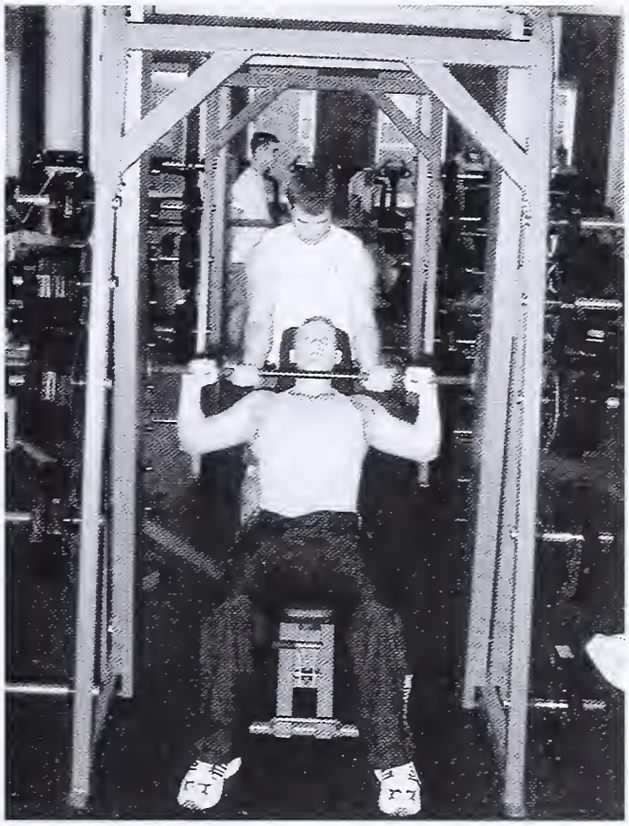
Step it Up ... (and Down)

For those individulas who needed a little more direction in their quest for fitness ... the new Athletic Center offered a variety of classes for faculty, staff and students. Many trained students were employed by the Athletics Department to head up these classes. Spinning, step-aerobic, and kick-boxing are just a few of the classes offered in the new facility. Additionally, people found their way to the weight room and cardiovascular equipment. From treadmills to ellipitical machines, pulse rates were increasing just at the thought of the state of the art machines. Nautilus machines and free weights rounded out the available resources for getting buff. Regardless of skill level, many people have enjoyed kicking their fitness quest into gear with these exciting new offerings ... in a brand new setting!

Spinning ... Spinning ... Spinning - not for the faint at heart!

A little kick-boxing to get your aggressions out!



... and ALL AROUND!

After twenty years of service to Framingham State College and its student clubs, Barbara Dias bid farewell to friends. Serving as the Bookkeeper for Student Involvement, her dedication will be missed.

FSC RETIREES 2002

One of the most significant events of 2001-2002 was the downturn of the economy. The Commonwealth of Massachusetts responded with various measures for the state colleges and other public agencies. One tactic of cost savings involved an early retirement incentive. Many individuals across the state could retire earlier than anticipated, yet still enjoy the various benefits of full service. The 'savings' came from agencies only filling one of four vacancies left by retirees. Framingham State said farewell to many beloved staff, faculty and administrators at the end of the academic year. From Facilities to Vice President positions, no area of the College was untouched by the retiree exodus. The Dial wishes to thank each retiree for his/her service and commitment to the College ... and most importantly, an enjoyable and relaxing retirement. Your services and faces will be greatly missed!

SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

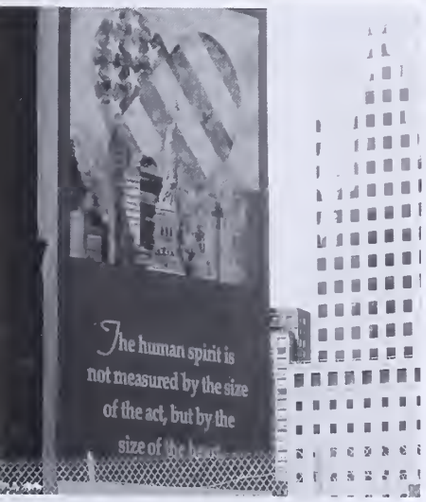
WILL LIFE EVER be the SAME?

How can words accurately describe the agony, shock, and devastation the world experienced on and after Tuesday, September 11, 2001?

The Dial does not intend to recreate the events of September 11 ... US History will now be teaching everyone about the first attack on US soil since Pearl Harbor. Every person has a different story about the impact of September 11 on his or her life. We do not have pictures of each crash site ... or the anguished faces of families of firefighters. We only have our own perception of the day. The included New York City pictures were taken months after the attacks. And, hopefully, inspire how time moves forward and communities rebuild.

Framingham State has its own story about responding and joining as a community to make sense of the attacks.

This section intends to only memoralize a day that has left everyone still wondering ... will life ever be the same?



In such desperate times, we should not hang our heads low, and wallow in sorrow and pity for those lost. We must stand with our heads high, as Americans have been taught to do. Never before have we had to prove to everyone why it is so great to be an American, ...

While my heart was crushed by the harsh reality that there are people who truly don't care about the value of precious human life, I still cling onto hope, and I think of Anne Frank who said, 'In spite of everything, I still believe that people are really good at heart.' I encourage you to seek out these people, envelop yourself in love and patriotism. Be as proud to be an American as you were yesterday, because desipte the horrific tragedy our country has endured, we still are Americans, We still belive in life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Stephanie Flynn
excerpt from The Gatepost, September 14, 2001

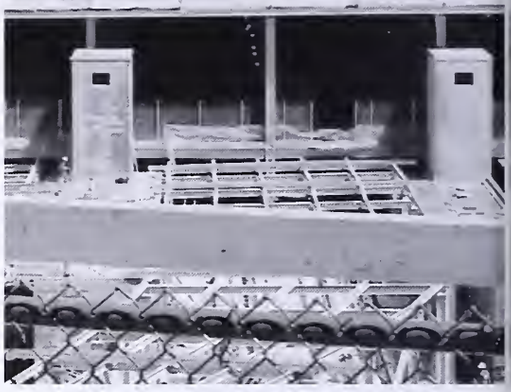
9.11.01

In the days, weeks, and months following September 11, reactions were varied, but all were somber. Candlelight vigils were held, reflection ceremonies occurred, and tributes were made. People became heroes in moments, and communities pulled together in new ways.

At the Twin Towers in New York City, the Pentagon, and Pennslyvania, rebuilding was not an easy task. Each site only resembled its former self. And, it took months to literally dig out of the rubble.



Not only did these specific locations need to clean up the destruction, the entire nation was faced with new security measures. Indeed, life did go on, but it would never be the same.

"I actually saw the moment when the second plane came. I said, 'What is that?,' and suddenly, the next thing was the picture of the Pentagon,'
~Dr. Helen Heineman

'I was frustrated because we were in a position where there was nothing we could do but sit back and watch these guys tear our country apart,' ~Senior PJ Pinsonnault.

'We really pulled together during our nation's weakest hour and we proved that there was still hope, love and faith throughout our campus, and throughout our great country,'
~SGA President, Bobby Walmsley

Firefighter Tribute

Student Trustee Andrea Canevazzi holds on to her father, a firefighter. Both attended the event in the Ecumenical and Cultural Center on October 22, 2001.

Almost a month after the devastating attacks, the College gathered to recognize the firefighters who lost their lives during September 11. Over a hundred faculty, staff, students, community members attended a ceremony in the Ecumenical and Cultural Center. Dr. John Budz, professor of Psychology at Framingham State, donated a photograph and poem to the College at the Firefighter tribute. His photo of Parisian firefighters captured the spirit that so many felt towards the fallen of September 11. In addition to the donated photograph, Dr. Budz read a poem "The Fireman."

The ceremony was just one of many responses made by the Framingham State community. On September 11, a state of emergency was called, and the College was closed. The Ecumenical and Cultural Center remained open for prayer and reflection, while the counseling center staff was available for those needing support. Many students of O'Connor Hall joined together to donate blood to the Red Cross for the many victims. Community members found a variety of ways to join together and support one another and those touched by the tragedy.

FACULTY, STAFF, and ADMINISTRATION

The Times they are a Changin'

Dr. Helen L. Heineman, President

As the early retirement push came to Framingham State College, many shifts of responsibility occurred on campus. At the annual retirement and recognition ceremony held on May 20, 2002, the College announced over thirty (30) retirements from faculty, staff, and administration. Thus, the campus made several announcements regarding position changes and promotions. While many of the changes were related to retirements, other areas were simply adjusted to the changing times and people of Framingham State. Effective dates for position changes occurred throughout the 2001-02 academic year, and well into the summer months of 2002.

Administration and Staff changes

Dr. Patricia Plummer, Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs joined the Board of Higher Education as Deputy Chancellor for Policy and Planning.

Dr. Judy Klass, Dean of Undergraduate Education and Academic Support Services, was promoted to Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Mr. David Baldwin, Associate Director of Residence Life and Housing, will also be working as Coordinator of Multicultural Affairs.

Ms. Adele Downing retired in June, and her role in the Arts and Humanities Program will be continued by Mr. Mark Evans, Artist-in-Residence.

OFFICE FOCUS ... HERE to HELP

The Framingham State Counseling Center is a free service available to all students on campus. Whether your course load was driving you crazy, or problems at home were not far from your thoughts, the staff has always welcomed many faces through their doors on the fifth floor of the College Center.

CONNECTIONS with the OLD and NEW ... ALUMNI & DEVELOPMENT

The Development and Alumni Relations Office provides support for alumni events, as well as resources for developing funds for the College. Whether it's homecoming or reunion weekend, the Office works with alums of Framingham State to coordinate fun events for the former students. Through telefund, current students call upon alumnus to donate funds to special projects or scholarships. Either way, the Office believes in the past, present and future of FSC.

CHRISTA CORRIGAN McAULIFFE CENTER

As teacher, Mission Specialist, and Framingham State College alumna, Christa Corrigan McAuliffe has inspired both students and educators for nearly two decades. The McAuliffe Center was established to honor her commitment to education by providing exciting science and math programs, all closely based on the Massachusetts Science and Technology/ Engineering Curriculum Frameworks.

The Challenger Learning Center is the McAuliffe Center's best-known program. In full-size mockups of both Houston's Mission Control and a space station interior, middle-school students apply the principles of physical science to the real-time challenges of a simulated space flight.

The McAuliffe Center is located on the FSC campus in O'Connor Hall.

CONNECTING on a HIGHER LEVEL

WIRELESS LAPTOPS CONNECT STUDENTS at FSC

Framingham State College continued to phase technology into the classroom, as more courses required wireless laptops for students. The initiative marks part of the wireless campus vistion of Dr. Arthur Doyle, Vice President for Academic Affairs. Dr. Doyle and other Framingham administrators and faculty, hope to have wireless laptops in the hands of all new student by the fall of 2002. Once the program is 'rolled out', Framingham State College will be the first public college to require laptops of all entering students, and most importantly, have technology overwhelmingly present in the classroom.

Center for Academic Support and Advising (CASA) meets the needs of all students seeking academic support ... whether through tutoring or special programs. Located in the South Pierce Annex, CASA has been a staple to undergraduates at FSC for a few years now. From the Writing and Math Centers, to general advising, CASA provided professional staff dedicated to student's academic challenges. Students were also able to have computer access and subject tutoring throughout the 2001-2002 academic year.

McAuliffe Awards Ceremony 2001

A McAuliffe Scholar embraces the special 'teacher' acknowledged in her essay.

Each year the Christa Corrigan McAuliffe Center awards seven scholarships to qualifying Framingham State College undergraduates. Award decisions are based upon a careful review of the academic and special talents of each candidate. At the annual McAuliffe Scholar dinner, scholarship winners are recognized through a reception, dinner and ceremony. Winners have the opportunity to present an essay related to an outstanding 'teacher' from their life. Additionally, Ms. Grace Corrigan, mother of Christa McAuliffe is present to congratulate the recipients.

TRAGEDY @ FSC
Before the Thanksgiving holiday, Framingham State lost two young students. Eric Tyner and Andrew Botti-Marino passed away while staying with friends in Boston. The College honored their lives with a Memorial service on Monday, December 3 , in the Ecumenical Center. Both students were noted as intelligent, friendly, and great guys.

YOU SAID IT

It happens every Friday at Framingham State ... The Gatepost hits the stands, and people around campus are found with noses buried in the paper. The paper covers various types of events, but always captures the true picture of Framingham State. Special thanks to The Gatepost for permission to reprint.

Q What was the most memorable thing that happened to you at FSC this year?

A Playing Strip Poker on the first day of school.
~Joe De Vincentis, Freshmen

"I don't care how much money they spend, I just want the toilets to flush. We all know what happens when they don't."

Jim McKeever, on automatic flush toilets in the residence halls.

"We all like to complain. You can deny it all you want, but once in awhile you cannot help but let one slip out of your mouth."

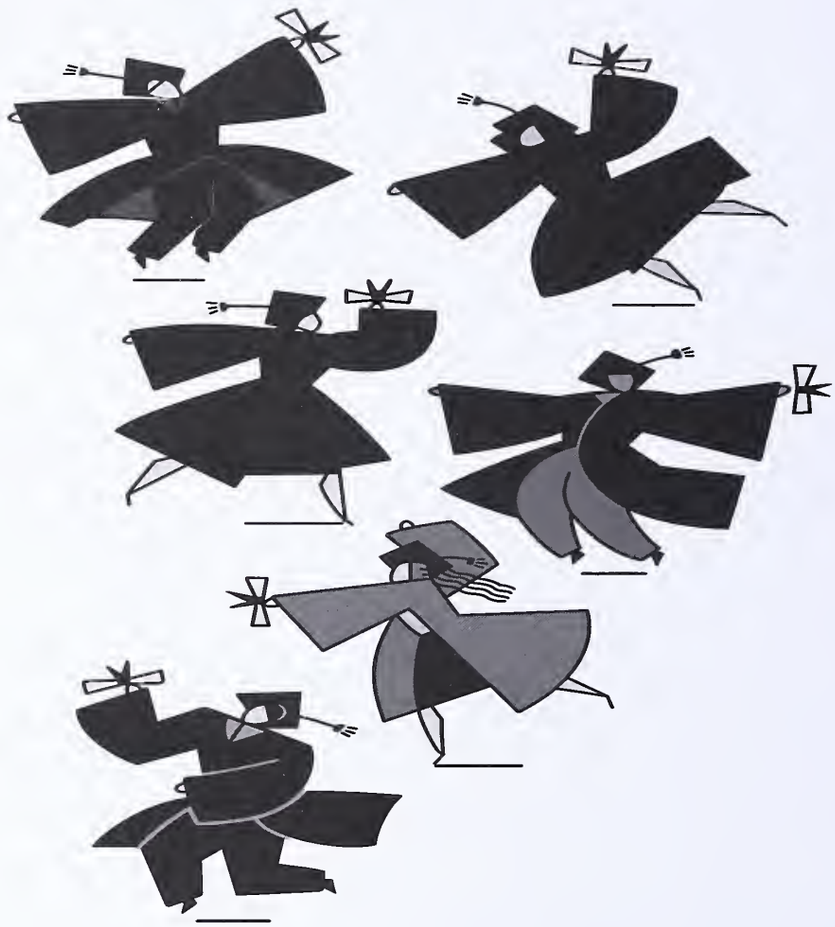
Congratulations



Graduates!

To Our Daughter Candice Lynn Holzhauer

Down Memory Lane, from Mom and Dad,

Remember that first day? We have a picture of you getting on the bus to prove it, wearing your UMass Jacket and purple pants. I told you, "I love you and will miss you". You told me, "Don't worry Mommy, I will be back later today". I went into the house and cried. Mrs. Watrous, your Kindergarten teacher, said at your first Parent Teacher Meeting, "Candice is like a sponge, sucking up every bit of knowledge I give her and asking for more. She is a lovely child to teach". Do you remember Art Class with Cynthia Fulton? You painted a picture of a cat wih a big daisy flower, you were so proud! Spots, Baseball, Softball, Catcher, First base, Outfield, remember the time you caught the ball wih your nose? Ouch!! &@%& You didn't give up though; you were always Dad's "All Star".

Jumping ahead a bit to Junior High, it was a big difference from Elementary School. How about Mr. Bruno? You know the Math teacher who you said must be crazy! He jumped on top of his desk and screamed! "THEN what do we do? We MOOVVE the Decial point over!" He may have been acting a bit crazy but he sure got his point across and you did well in his class. Yeah! Do you remember Middle East Day? You dressed up as a Mummy, it sounded like a cool thing to do, but was anything but cool. Hot in those sheet strips, phew!

High School lets see, friends Jill, Kelly, etc. too many to remember. Miss Kiendzior, what a great Choir teacher, with a bubbly pesonality who put up with a lot from her students. Oh yes, lets not forget the play, "Anything Goes"; it sure did go well. I remember you very adamantly making the coment; if Nick drops me I'll punch him! You were sooo nervous, but you did Great, (we have the movie to prove it). The audience whistled and cheered! We had so many parents come up to us and say your daughter Candace was fantastic, she played her character great! You were the Star! You and everyone involved had a great time doing this performance. Now then, lets see, Graduation time, you were the prettiest young woman there, in our eyes at least and you made us all very proud!

Now off to College, Framingham State, two hours away! Freshman, no car allowed on campus! Tragedy! No Wheels! In a dormitory with how many other students? Oh my God! All the trips to and from, all the hours on the road, it's your turn to drive, we just took it one day at a time. You realized early on that partying is not conducive to learning and did great in your classes. You did great as we expected, but soon found dormitory life was a real drag, Freshman especially!

So now you deviated onto a different path, a path less traveled, one that takes you into a new part of your young adult life, renting your first apartment and all the expenses that go with it! You have two great jobs, Explore, that helps greatly with your expenses, rent, elec., gas, FOOD and Bartending at Vibe. Ok, now you are about to embark on yet another new part of your life, working full time! You have already in the past been doing this, full time student plus the jobs, so it is just a matter of finding what it is you want to do. You will do well, you're smart and have your priorities straight and know your limitations. Wow! We are Very Prround of Your Accomplishments!

Love,

Mom & Dad

Janine Nappi

Congratulations!

Love and Prayers
Dad, Mom, Relatives, Friends, and many pets, too!

Evelyn Gonzalez

When I gave birth to you Evelyn Gonzalez, born on January 30, 1980, I never know that we were going to have such a special relationship. A beautiful little girl born of love, who one day would grow up as a young woman full of love. We taught you the important value of life and to be honest. When you needed advice or someone to talk to, we were there for you. You have always been a sensitive, beautiful, loving, very intelligent young lady who has all the qualities to become very successful, dealing with what the future brings you. Always have confidence in yourself, and do not be afraid to strive for everything you want. We know you can do it. You are strong in your beliefs and values, you will always be able to walk with pride. Your life will be filled with peace, happiness and remember Faith and Love is the force that powers our heart. We will always continue to cherish and love everything about you.

We watched you play with dolls, finish high school and now our little girl is graduating from college. You are going to be an excellent teacher.

Wherever you go, just remember we are here for you. We are very proud of you. We love you very much. God bless you and be with you always. Congratulations!

Love, Mom and Dad

Jason Robbins

We are so proud of you. It wasn't always easy but you hung in there and were successful. Remember the lessons you learned along the way that helped you to succeed. These are your keys to success in the future. May God continue to bless your life.

Love, Mom & Dad

Taryn Lea Rancatore

"Congratulations!
Today is your day.
Your mountain is waiting.
So...get on your way!
You're off to Great Places!
You're off and away!
And will you succeed?
Yes! You will, indeed!
[98 and 3/4%. guaranteed]

Oh, the places you'll go!"

Love,
Dad, Mom and Chef Scott
[and thank you Dr. Suess]

Aubrey Rochleau

Anticipation is part of the stuff that dreams are made of, and we hope all your dreams come true.

Love and Success
Ma & Da

Jillian Bishop

Congratulations, Jill,
on your B.A. in Sociology!

You've come a long way.
We're so PROUD of you!!

Much Love,
Mom, Dad,
Kara, &
Elizabeth

Best wishes to all
FSC Class of 2002
graduates!!

Andrea Johnson
We are really proud of you!
You are #1 with us!!

Love Always
Grandma & Grandpa XOXO

Joanne Nicholson

You are the third one born in the family, but the first to achieve what none in the family has accomplished.
Like the seeds in the Bible, one shall fall on rocks and not put forth, one shall fall on sour ground and start to flourish but wither, and then, like you, one will fall on gound, flourish and bring forth fruit. You have started with everything against you and still accomplished what you wanted in life.
We are so proud of you words cannot express our feelings. Thank you for being our Daughter.
Love, Dad and Mom

Sarah Schofield

We are so very proud of you.
Congratulations on your accomplishments.
It isn't easy.
We love you very much.

Go SAS - Concieve, Believe, Achieve

Love, Mom, Dad & Bryan

Darlene Lealia Crowley

You've been the source of hope and pride filled with love and boundless joy right from the very start. We couldn't be more proud of you than we are today upon your college graduation.

All our love always,

Mom, Dad, Alannah, & Daphne

Renee C. Jacques

It is good to have an end to journey towards; but it is the journey that matters in the end.

CONGRATULATIONS RENEE

WE LOVE YOU!

Mom, Dad, and Kyle

Corey M. White

What a wonderful son you've grown to be. We are so proud of you. Our wish for you is much happiness and success. Follow your heart and always be yourself.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Love,
Mom, Mark & Kristen

Jackie King

We are so very proud of the person you have become. Congratulations on your many accomplishments.

Our very best wishes & love always,
Mom, Dad, Erin, & Patrick

Stacey Philbert,

Four years ago when we dropped you off at FSC, that first day, we were in awe of the opportunity you were given. We are all proud of how you handled college life with responsibility and dedication. You worked diligently to achieve great grades and made amazing friendships. Congratulations! Go forth and enjoy your future. We love you!

Mom, Dad & Kristen

Maggie Maginnis

You have come a long way, baby!

Love,
Mom & Dad

Heather Maloney

Congratulations!
We're so proud of your awesome achievements.

Love,
Mom,
Dad, & Mike

Amanda Felicia Michienzi

It seems like just yesterday you were a little girl and now you are a grown up young lady ready to face the world. Know how proud we are of the young lady you have become and how very much we love you. Remember to always hold your head high, stand firm in your convictions, and always, always keep on believing in the magic for the magic is within you. Good luck in all you do and remember to live each day to the fullest. Keep on reaching for the stars and may all your dreams come true.

With all our love,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations Amanda! We are so proud of you. We hope all your dreams come true. Good luck in grad school. You are a great sister. We love you.
Matthew, Nicholas
(and Gullie, too!)

Words just cannot express how proud we are of all you have achieved and how wonderful a person you have become. When you look at this page know how much you are loved by so many people - Nana and Grampy, Nana Bea, Grandma, your aunts, uncles, cousins, Matthew, Nicholas and of course, Dad and I, Gulliver too. Good luck and be safe, do well, stand strong, and know I love you. Dare to make a difference.

With all my love,
Your #1 Fan

Tania Novak

Congratulations
Tania!
We are so proud of your achievements and we wish you
the very best
for your future.
Love,
Dad & Mom

Andrea Johnson

My goodness, our little girl from Winthrop is all grown up! From crawling around, to riding a little pink bike, to driving a car! You're a young lady now with bright eyes and a wonderful smile!

We are so proud of you! Congratulations!
(I do look forward to those 'mommie calls'.)

Love,
Mom and John

Peter Brandwein

We have watched your growth as a student and a person with great pride. Your talent and spirit have been rewarded with the success you have worked so hard to attain. We wish you all the happiness that life can bring!

Love,
Mom and Dad
(and David, too)

Kristine Padilla

Congratulations! We're so very proud and happy for you...

We know there is inside you all of the potential to be whatever you want to be, and all of the energy to do whatever you want to do...

Believe in your potential and hold on to your dream... May success and happiness be yours in everything you do...

WE LOVE YOU ~

College Hymn

Dear Framingham, thy children round thee gather,
Our vows of love to thee we pledge anew,
Unfailing font of hope and joy forever,
We shall proclaim our homage to you.
Unfailing font of hope and joy forever,
We shall proclaim our homage to you.

Through countless years, to all a fostring mother,
Thy bounteous blessings poured on age and youth,
Our suppliant pray'r till time our chain shall sever,
Will ever be: "Live to the Truth."
Our suppliant pray'r till time our chain shall sever,
Will ever be: "Live to the Truth."

"We have found a strange footprint on the shores of the unknown. We have devised profound theories, one after another, to account for its origins. At last, we have succeeded in reconstructing the creature that made the footprint. And lo!
It is our own!"
